What's Doing IN DECREATION

By Jean Cone, Recreation Director

Hal McIntyre, will bring his 13-piece band and vocalist, Jeanne McManus, to the Community Center on Thursday, February 12. This adult Station dance will begin at 8 p.m. instead of the usual 9 o'clock time so plan to come early. The style of this famous band features subdued reed voicing, bright clipped brasses, and, of course, Hal McIntyre's brilliant sax solos. Hal was with the Glenn Miller orchestra for four years before starting a band of his own. He and the band have been featured in four Columbia musicals and have recorded on the MGM, RCA-Camden, Decca, and Columbia labels. One honor he will always cherish was his selection to play at the President's Birthday Ball at which the late F.D.R. and Mrs. Roosevelt appeared. Another thrill was the reception he got from G.I.'s as he toured Europe during the war. This highly entertaining and versatile band has starred in such renowned showplaces as the Palladium in Hollywood, Steel Pier in Atlantic City, Hotel Peabody in Memphis, and the Meadowbrook in Cedar Grove, plus a host of others. All Station adults are invited and no admission will be charged. Reservations will be taken through February 11 for groups of eight or more. For your group table reservation, call Ann Seitz, Extension

Entertainment Favorites Everyone attending the last adult Station dance at the Community Center had a chance to tell us their favorite dance orchestras and entertainers. Thought you might be TODAY interested in the results. Lawrence Welk, Les Brown, and George Shearing came out on top of orchestra favorites. For entertainment Louis Prima and Keely Smith and singing groups such as the Commodores, the Sportsmen, Mary Kaye Trio, the Four Aces, and the Four Freshmen were the most pop-

Finals for the monthly Pool Tournament were held at the RAFT Club last Thursday night, January 29. Competition was very close with Glen Venable of NAF, winner; Walter Coomes, also of NAF, a close second, and Norman Carr, Burroughs High School student, giving tight competition. Those fine entertainers, the "Commodores," appeared at the RAFT Sunday evening, February 1, to a very appreciative audience. This month of February is full of many and varied events for all RAFT Club members. Dancing sessions every Wednesday evening are TUES.-WED. on the program, as well as weekly ping pong and pool tourneys with a grand prize to the winners of the monthly tournament. A semi-forof "Hearts and Flowers" should be mestic lough riot. a gala event on Saturday evening, February 21, with dancing to the "Constellations." So, spruce up, boys!
