Wage Experts Hold Two-Day Meet at NOTS

Over 55 personnel specialists registered here yesterday for a two-day Navy Salary and Wage Administrators' Conference which NOTS hosted for the first time.

Salary and Wage Administrators from 16 Navy activities in Southern California, staff members of the Area Wage and Classification Office in Long Beach, the Bureau of Weapons, and the U. S. Civil Service Commission were represented.

Purpose of the conference was to exchange ideas among salary and wage experts in city, county, and California State personnel programs on salary and wage systems, classification methods, and wage setting practices in local and public jurisdictions.

Following Captain W. W. Hollister's welcome at the beginning of the conference Thursday, Robert A. Blaise, Technical Assistant to the Station's Technical Director, outlined the Station's technical programs and Robert W. Anderson, Head of Personnel and Community Relations Department discussed the role of classification in personnel management.

Guest speakers at the conference included Joseph W. Heartz and Robert L. Leonetti, Los Angeles County Civil Service Commission; Melvin J. Lawson, Los Angeles City Civil Service Commission; Ronald E. Dunn, Long Beach Unified School District; Robert W. Fischer, California State Personnel Board; and A. R. Albozue, Personnel Officer of the California State Department of Social Welfare.

This group of administrators meets periodically at Navy installations to discuss wage and classification program improvements and to exchange ideas with visiting speakers from private industrial personnel programs and those of city, county and state jurisdictions.

The rotation of the conferences among various Navy activities in Southern California also provides members of the group with first-hand knowledge of the large number and variety of occupations to be found in Navy installations in this area.

New Ruling On Telephone Bills

Starting in November, the Telephone Business Office will no longer send delinquent notices to customers who have not paid their telephone bill by the 25th of the month.

Telephone bills are due on the 25th of each month. A five day grace period is granted the customer following the 25th and if the bill has not been paid by the 30th of the month their telephone will be disconnected at 2 p.m. of the same day without further notice.

Please Return Telephone Directory Cards Now

Response of Station personnel in returning the IBM Telephone Directory Cards to the Telephone Office for inclusion in the next Station Directory has been unsatisfactory, according to Lt. (jg) Lloyd Thorsen, Communications Officer.

Unless these cards are returned to Code 8544 on or before October 30 subscribers will not be listed in the new Directory to be issued in December.

Complete cooperation is required in order to make the Directory a complete and useful publication.

Navy League Sponsors Navy Day Observance

Since 1922, the 27th day of October has been recognized as Navy Day, and each year the observance of this day has been traditionally sponsored by the Navy League of the United States. The League, cooperating with the Navy, civic and veteran organizations, industries and schools, has emphasized the Navy's role in our national defense.

On the local scene, the Indian Wells Valley County of the Navy League and its 45 members carry on the tradition and observance of Navy Day since the formation of the Department of Defense under which Armed Forces Day was instituted as a salute to all the Services. Present officers are: Dr. Larry Stevens, president; Dr. Jim W. Henry, vice president; Kenneth Smith, secretary; Andrew Houston, treasurer; and Kenneth Robinson, judge advocate.

Last year's president, William A. Robb, was recently elected a second vice president of the Pacific Southwest Hardware Association.

Suggested in 1901 and founded the next year, the Navy League of the United States has, through the years, earned its title of "Civilian arm of the Navy." Scarcely a day passes that some unit of the League somewhere does not contribute in its own way to the support of the U. S. Navy. The League functions through councils of citizens who use the principle that the Navy is one of the surest guarantees of national security and world peace as their guide.

Founded by twentieth-century patriots, the League is a non-political, non-partisan, non-commercial, non-sectional organization composed of civilians. Logically enough, many of its members are retired Naval personnel—officers and men on active duty with the Navy are not eligible for membership.

Every civilian, who is a good citizen, and every member of the Armed Forces not on active duty is welcomed into the ranks of the Navy League.

The growth of the League can be traced back to Civil War days. Some of the League's founders had served in the U.S. Navy during that war, but had resigned during the promotion stagnation that existed between the war's close and the opening of the Spanish-American conflict some 40 years later. Most of them returned to the service during the end-of-the-century war, and most were connected with the Navy Militia both before and after the battles.

Believing that war could only come to this country from across the sea, these men, inspired by de-

OCT. 24th

United Nations Day

Each birthday of the U.N., since its founding Oct. 24, 1945, is an occasion for regarding it with a fresh appreciation of its record for solid achievement. Its original 51 member nations have grown to 82, and by working together to tackle the great social and political problems of our time they have all—in the person of their delegates—developed a confident sense of their ability to meet new tensions with new solutions.

For the major role of the U.N. is reasonable mediation. It has no magic wand that can, overnight, rid the world of poverty, disease, and ancient hatreds. But it provides the framework wherein sensible men and women from all corners of the globe can put their heads together to plan a better life that will utilize the fruits of science and technology for the common good.

Measured against the history of the League of Nations, the U.N. has a record of vigorous health. Its working methods are elastic as befits the issues under consideration. But it never departs from its fundamental pledge of faith in "the dignity and worth of the human person" and in "the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small."

There will always be people who wag their heads and say that the world we live in is sick, sick, sick. Their reiteration of this achieves nothing except to make things sicker. Isn't it healthier to leave them to their moaning and listen to the counsel of people who refuse to throw in the sponge? That is the electrifying current that keeps the East River monolith humming—the accent on the positive, the rejection of the negative.

Yes, the U.N. is a teen-ager whose feet have a grip on a straight path. It doesn't veer from its fundamental goals: peace, prosperity, mutual understanding. It's bigger than its critics. (AFPS)

Community Council Meeting Report . . .

The feasibility of removing the fence surrounding the housing area of the China Lake community was discussed at length at the Oct. 13 meeting of the Community Council, according to Don Moore, Council president.

As a result, a committee was appointed to assess public sentiment and study the pros and cons of the fence removal relating to the best interests of the community.

Headed by Richard Frederick, Council vice-president, the committee will endeavor to resolve the answers to the many questions surrounding the issue during the next few months.

Questions in point are: does the existence of the fence inhibit the assumption of responsibility by the State of California and Kern County for some aspects of China Lake community life? Does the fence provide a sense of security for the residents of the Station—and how real is the feeling of security? Does the fence create psychological problems for some people—is there, for instance, a "fence neurosis"?

Might the elimination of the fence around China Lake serve as an incentive to attract private enterprise into the area?

Pertaining to the last question is the problem of civilian privileges in the Commissary and Navy Exchange. Would the closing of these facilities to civilians serve the long range purpose of bringing large chain stores into the area?

A further problem discussed was the status of galleys and lounges in the new dorms. In answer to requests from dormitory residents, the Council is forwarding to the Command the following recommendations: that galleys and lounge areas in the new dorms be refurbished and brought up to standard; that the use of kitchen stove facilities be restored; that responsibility for maintenance of kitchens and lounges be defined; that a periodic inspection be instituted with a system of prior warning before stoves are disconnected.

The next Council meeting will be Tuesday evening, Oct. 27, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center.

Next BPW Meeting To Feature Program, District Confab Report
Business and Professional Women of the China Lake Club will hear the report of the Central District BPW conference held last weekend in Ridgecrest, and sponsored by the Kern Desert Club, at next Tuesday's luncheon in the Sun Room.

A short, but most interesting program, has been planned by Program Coordinator Dorothy Vandaveer.

Theater Party Planned
ESO will sponsor a theater party at the Town Hall Theater, 805 E. Green Street, Pasadena, on Friday evening, December 4.

There will be a double bill that evening: "Seven Nuns in Las Vegas" and a one-act play, "Dear Little Wife."

Tickets are available from Dorothy Kendall or Dick Heller at the special price of $1 each. The size of the theater limits the number of tickets available, so make up a party of your family and friends and order your tickets.

Dual Drive Set to Collect Funds For Two Agencies in November

The Community Chest-Operation Santa Claus Fund Drive at NOTS Pasadena will be held in two stages this year—collections for Operation Santa Claus will be made during November 2-6, and for Community Chest between November 30-December 4, according to Jesse Rowe, Fund Drive Chairman.

Brochures are presently being assembled describing the 37 Red Feather agencies which will share contributions. These will be distributed shortly to all hands.

John Sandy has been appointed to head the Operation Santa Claus portion of the fund drive. Operation Santa Claus is NOTS Pasadena's own program to help needy families at Christmas time.

Department personnel to assist in the drive are now being selected, Rowe reports, in preparation for the drive to get underway in another week.

Interest on Savings Bonds Upped to 3 3/4

In a recent law signed by President Eisenhower, the interest rates of Series-E savings bonds have been increased from 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 per cent.

New Series E bonds with issue dates of June 1, 1959, and after will earn 3 3/4 per cent interest compounded semi-annually if held to maturity. The increase from 3 1/2 per cent to 3 3/4 per cent is accomplished by reducing the term of the bond to seven years, nine months (instead of former eight years, eleven months).

Unmatured Series E bonds issued from June 1949 through April 1957 (which had not reached maturity before June 1, 1959) and on which a 10-year 3 per cent extension had already been promised, will now earn 3 3/4 per cent for the entire extension period if held the full 10 years. There will be lesser yields, beginning at approximately 3 1/2 per cent, if redeemed earlier.

The redemption value of any bond at the beginning of the new extension will be the base upon which interest will accrue during the 10-year extension period.

Unmatured Series E bonds issued beginning with May 1957 will have a 10-year extension privilege. Interest rates and other terms and conditions will be determined as they approach maturity.

Matured Series E bonds, issued May 1941 through May 1949, which are already in their extension period and which will begin to reach second maturity in May 1961, have been given a second 10-year extension, including interest rates, will be determined as they approach extended maturity.

Purchase of savings bonds is an excellent means of saving money through use of the payroll deduction plan. Everyone should save part of his earnings. Act now, if you are not purchasing bonds, use this painless automatic way.

Pasadena Profile

You've heard of the marrying judge? Well, Pasadena has a "marrying engineer." D. A. Kunz, who heads the Systems Operations Division of Underwater Ordnance Department, about six months ago was ordained a Mormon Bishop.

In off-duty hours, he performs marriages, funeral services, church services, and in general looks after the business of the church in the West Arcadia Ward.

Kunz has been with NOTS since 1945. Before that, he worked for CalTech where he was involved in the development of Morris Dam.

During the ensuing years, he has been a Project Engineer, Branch Head, Assistant Division Head, and for the past three years Division Head.

He has been responsible for many projects, including the conduct of two major weapon system evaluations. He was Project Manager of the RAT weapon system, and was involved in establishment of the Polaris program at the Station. His division operates an environmental laboratory and UOD test ranges, as well as carrying project responsibilities.

Kunz was born and raised in Bern, Idaho, a little farming community in the Rockies. He attended Utah State University, graduating in 1940 with a B.S. degree in civil engineering.

Following school, he worked for the Utah State Road Commission. A year later, he came to Los Angeles where he worked for the U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Kunz and their four daughters, ranging in ages from 17 to 3, make their home in Arcadia.
