Working on Photography Badge — Wendy White snaps a photograph of John Kwolek at the Navy Exchange Office, who has been having outdoor sessions since John Muir. He will tell about his life and read from the Sierra Nevada mountain stories, at the Centennial Hall and Beach Club, beginning at 7 p.m. Families and women in the movement will be held a birthday party, for the money. She's against the tax. (R)

BEQ Master-at-Arms Chosen As NWC's 'Bluejacket of Month'...
‘Walk-a-Thon’ for March of Dimes Slated Here

The High Desert Junior Women’s Club presents a ‘Walk-a-Thon’ for March of Dimes in Nellis Air Force Base. Although this event is in this area, Walk-a-Thons are being held in many communities throughout the nation. The local version will be held at the Desert Princess Apartments at 6 a.m. and cover a distance of 12 miles.

Each walker will obtain sponsors (people who are willing to give ‘X’ amount of money for each mile walked by the contestant.) The more sponsors one can get, the more money will be raised for the March of Dimes—plus a shaped check from Desert Department Stores.

The Rocteer

Promotional Opportunities

Promotional opportunities are available in all sectors of the aerospace industry. Applications are invited from qualified aerospace professionals in the areas of technical sales, applications engineering, technical support, and service. Candidates with experience in the aerospace industry are encouraged to apply. Additional opportunities in the areas of technical sales, applications engineering, and service are available on a full-time basis. Interested candidates should contact the Aerospace Industry Career Services Department at 555-1234.

The Rocteer

Monthly Special

Comat Sleaders Maneuvers: Books

Belly Dance Trance

“Belly and the Harms” — a group of belly dancers — will appear at the Community Chrysler on March 1st. The show will feature a variety of styles, including modern, classical, and traditional dances. The event will feature both solo and group performances. Ticket prices are $20 per person and $30 per couple. Showtime is 7:30 p.m. Proceeds from this event will benefit the local community center.

The Rocteer

Navy Wives Ombudsman—Nancy Pictures, the wife of Abbe J. B. Pickens, V.P. of the Navy Wives of Southern Nevada, will be in attendance at the meeting on March 1st. Mrs. Picture is the ombudsman for the women’s organization and will be available to answer questions and provide support to families of military personnel.

The Rocteer

President Ford Wants 5% Limit Placed On Fed’s Pay Increase Slated in October

President Gerald Ford has proposed that the Oct. 1, 1975, federal pay raise be limited to a five percent increase. However, the “Pay Comparability Act” of 1971 requires that the federal pay raise be comparable with the private sector pay raise. Although a final report from the Bureau of Labor Statistics has yet to be released, it is estimated that the report will show a federal increase of about eight to nine percent.

The Rocteer

Joint Board Service Studying Methods Of Improving Commissary Store Operations

Five USAF representatives serving on a Joint Board have recently met to study methods for improving the efficiency, organization and operation of military commissary stores. The study, requested by the Secretary of Defense, will determine what changes are needed to make the commissary stores more effective and to provide better service to patrons.

The Rocteer

Public Works Will Begin Servicing Of Air Coolers Immediately

Public Works has recently identified 400 air coolers throughout the base that require servicing. The work will begin immediately and is expected to be completed within the next two months.

The Rocteer

Employee In The Spotlight

Dr. Raymond T. Morrow

Dr. Raymond T. Morrow was the last NWC liaison officer in Washington, D.C., before he retired. He also worked in the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He has served in various capacities, including as a member of the National Commission for Military Personnel and the National Commission for the Study of Military Manpower. He is a member of the American Political Science Association and the American Historical Association.

The Rocteer

Orientations To Desert College—Dr. L. O. Hellenkamp, WAC Technical Director (I.), and Rear Admiral G. E. Freeman IV, WAC Commander (II), will be visiting the Desert College at Nellis Air Force Base. The visit is part of the Nellis AFB Community Outreach Program.

The Rocteer

Thrift Shop Workers Recognized—Dita Wigg (L), co-chairman of the Thrift Shop for the Women’s Auxiliary of the Commissary Officers’ Wives (WACOM), received a certificate of appreciation from Dr. John A. Jones (L). The WACOM has been in operation for 10 years and has raised over $15,000 for base charitable organizations.

The Rocteer

SAFETY MILESTONE – D. J. Russell, chief of the Environmental Services Department, accepts a plaque from Rear Admiral G. E. Freeman IV, WAC Commander. Rear Admiral 2 million miles were walked by his department without a lost time accident. The period covered by the safety award is from September 1974 to October 1975.

The Rocteer

COMAT SLEWERS MANEUVERS: BOOKS

BELLY DANCE TRANCE

"Bella and the Harms" — a group of belly dancers — will appear at the Community Chrysler on March 1st. The show will feature a variety of styles, including modern, classical, and traditional dances. The event will feature both solo and group performances. Ticket prices are $20 per person and $30 per couple. Showtime is 7:30 p.m. Proceeds from this event will benefit the local community center.

The Rocteer

Navy Wives Ombudsman—Nancy Pictures, the wife of Abbe J. B. Pickens, V.P. of the Navy Wives of Southern Nevada, will be in attendance at the meeting on March 1st. Mrs. Picture is the ombudsman for the women’s organization and will be available to answer questions and provide support to families of military personnel.

The Rocteer

President Ford Wants 5% Limit Placed On Fed’s Pay Increase Slated in October

President Gerald Ford has proposed that the Oct. 1, 1975, federal pay raise be limited to a five percent increase. However, the “Pay Comparability Act” of 1971 requires that the federal pay raise be comparable with the private sector pay raise. Although a final report from the Bureau of Labor Statistics has yet to be released, it is estimated that the report will show a federal increase of about eight to nine percent.

The Rocteer

Joint Board Service Studying Methods Of Improving Commissary Store Operations

Five USAF representatives serving on a Joint Board have recently met to study methods for improving the efficiency, organization and operation of military commissary stores. The study, requested by the Secretary of Defense, will determine what changes are needed to make the commissary stores more effective and to provide better service to patrons.

The Rocteer

Public Works Will Begin Servicing Of Air Coolers Immediately

Public Works has recently identified 400 air coolers throughout the base that require servicing. The work will begin immediately and is expected to be completed within the next two months.

The Rocteer

Employee In The Spotlight

Dr. Raymond T. Morrow

Dr. Raymond T. Morrow was the last NWC liaison officer in Washington, D.C., before he retired. He also worked in the Office of the Secretary of Defense and the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He has served in various capacities, including as a member of the National Commission for Military Personnel and the National Commission for the Study of Military Manpower. He is a member of the American Political Science Association and the American Historical Association.

The Rocteer

Orientations To Desert College—Dr. L. O. Hellenkamp, WAC Technical Director (I.), and Rear Admiral G. E. Freeman IV, WAC Commander (II), will be visiting the Desert College at Nellis Air Force Base. The visit is part of the Nellis AFB Community Outreach Program.

The Rocteer

Thrift Shop Workers Recognized—Dita Wigg (L), co-chairman of the Thrift Shop for the Women’s Auxiliary of the Commissary Officers’ Wives (WACOM), received a certificate of appreciation from Dr. John A. Jones (L). The WACOM has been in operation for 10 years and has raised over $15,000 for base charitable organizations.

The Rocteer

SAFETY MILESTONE – D. J. Russell, chief of the Environmental Services Department, accepts a plaque from Rear Admiral G. E. Freeman IV, WAC Commander. Rear Admiral 2 million miles were walked by his department without a lost time accident. The period covered by the safety award is from September 1974 to October 1975.
Dave Taylor, who division, had a big meal the night before A-4 Skyhawk wrestling in his own class. At NAS Alameda.

"The weather was absolutely ideal, as it has been nearly every time we played this woman, which ought account for our win," joked Carl Bryan, captain of the team. The winds give the China Lake contingent the championship and the team will now move into the USAFA, topped at 3500 feet at sunset as yet unknown.

The China Lahs would round up season with a 1-2 record, losing only to the Hiltons in the league.

Bryan shot a 77, Sunday, which was low while the high was set at 85 by Gary Custer recorded the low team score of 345.

Kyra Specht Wins Silver Medal At Class II Gym Meet

Four members of the High Desert gymnastics team to compete in the second annual AAU gymnastics championships held last month in Oregon.

Gus was earned by Miss Specht, with all-around score of 32.50 in the 15 to 16-year-old senior category, placed second to the winner second to the winner.

A tricky routine on the bars, Miss Specht earned another 8.50 on the balance beam, earning another 8.50 for the team.

The only thing that keep her coming in second to the winner today, in her coach, stated.

Floyd C. Haines, competing with Miss Specht in the Jacksonville, also earned high score for the team in the 15 to 16-year-old senior category for the team.

In addition, Mary Knemeyer, competing with Miss Specht, also earned a total of 30.30 points.

Although Miss Specht was unable to qualify for the state meet, Kathy Lamb, team mate of Miss Specht's, was high enough, after putting in a hard-working first year in the gym, also to qualify for the state meet.

Allen Wins 220-lb. Wrestling Title In Navy West Coast Meet

Lt. Terry Allen, the Navy Presenting Officer at Air Force and Education Squads' Pikes Peak, is a Navy vom Bundschus wrestling championship last week in Long Beach.

Allen, who normally wrestles in the 190-lb. class, had a hard time winning the weight to be the 190 lb. class, and was able to win.

In his match-up for the crown, he defeated Bob Smith, a short time earlier, by decision in the 151-220 lb. class, and was able to win.

His yardstick was set at 190 lb. which, displayed him in the first round in his own class. Therefore, he was able to win.

In addition, the victory was his first in the 151-220 lb. class, and was able to win.

In his match-up for the crown, he defeated Tom Higgins, a short time earlier, by decision in the 190-lb. class, and was able to win.

His yardstick was set at 190 lb. which, displayed him in the first round in his own class. Therefore, he was able to win.

In his match-up for the crown, he defeated Bob Smith, a short time earlier, by decision in the 151-220 lb. class, and was able to win.

His yardstick was set at 190 lb. which, displayed him in the first round in his own class. Therefore, he was able to win.

In his match-up for the crown, he defeated Bob Smith, a short time earlier, by decision in the 151-220 lb. class, and was able to win.

His yardstick was set at 190 lb. which, displayed him in the first round in his own class. Therefore, he was able to win.

In his match-up for the crown, he defeated Bob Smith, a short time earlier, by decision in the 151-220 lb. class, and was able to win.
Happenings Around NWC

"Sesay Two Days," the spring production of the Lake City Players, will continue its weekend run and two more performances will be held on Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16, respectively. The comedy, which will be staged tonight and tomorrow night at the F. A. M. Center Theater, will begin at 7:30 p.m. and conclude with a light dessert following the final performance. One of the featured performers is Bill Giuliani, who will portray the role of a Reno singer. The production has been well received by both critics and audiences.

A special event will be held on Wednesday, March 13, at 7:30 p.m., at the NAF Commissary Store, featuring the release of the latest issue of the magazine, Rural Community. This issue will feature an article on the importance of local community support and the role of rural newspapers in promoting community involvement.

Carroll Caravans

This Saturday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m., the Caravans will perform at the Center theater in a benefit concert to raise funds for the local community. The concert will feature a variety of local performers, including musicians, poets, and storytellers, and will be held at the center of town.

Ceramic Club Plans

The Ceramic Club will hold its annual meeting on Saturday, March 15, at 9:30 a.m., at the local library. The meeting will feature a guest speaker, who will discuss the role of ceramic art in contemporary society.

Golf Tournament

A golf tournament will be held on Saturday, March 15, at the local golf course, with all proceeds benefiting the local charity. The tournament will feature a range of skill levels, from novice to expert, and will be held in a friendly and competitive atmosphere.

Community Service

Volunteers are needed for various community service projects, including cleaning up local parks, painting murals on local buildings, and assisting with the annual communitywide cleanup day. Interested individuals are encouraged to contact the local community center for more information.

National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism

A series of workshops and seminars will be held throughout the month to raise awareness about the impact of alcoholism on individuals and families. The workshops will cover topics such as recognizing alcoholism, seeking help, and managing the effects of alcoholism on personal relationships.

Main Street Market

A farmers market will be held on Sunday, March 16, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., at the local community center. The market will feature a variety of local produce, crafts, and arts, and will provide an opportunity for community members to support local businesses.

Arts Council

The local arts council will hold its annual gala on Saturday, March 15, at the local community center. The event will feature a variety of local artists, including musicians, painters, and poets, and will be held in a celebration of local artistic talent.